

^E Instead a carpenter would start
^A A Kingdom of the heart
^E And beaten bruised, He stretched His hands
^A As God became a dying man
^E And King on cross was sacrificed
^A For the church, His bride

Chorus:

^{C#m} That would be great among the nations
^E A fire from a spark
^{C#m} So great among the nations
^E Bringing sunlight to the dark
^{C#m} And offering salvation
^E To a world of broken hearts
^E Among the nations there would be
^A A movement that would change eternity ^{B7} ^E

Verse 3:

^E And now this Kingdom is our own
^A We bow before His heavenly throne
^E And pledge our lives to His great cause
^A To seek and save the lost
^E And everywhere in every word
^A We share with all who have not heard
^E About the truth that sets men free ^B

Which prophets longed to see

Chorus (Play 2x):

That would be great among the nations

A fire from a spark

So great among the nations

Bringing sunlight to the dark

And offering salvation

To a world of broken hearts

Among the nations there would be

A movement that would change eternity
